Baptism

(Choose the correct word - watch out for some tricks!)

Baptism is sign/lightbulb/pigeon to show others that you are on Jesus' lap/team/boat. People of all ages/sizes/backgrounds get baptised. These people have

- recognised that He is God's rescuer/super hero/ challenger
- turned from living their own way - this is sometimes called prayed/repented/jumped
- Trusted in Jesus for God's forgiveness.

This means that they have become a watcher/enemy/ follower of Jesus

As a sign or symbol baptism shows something important:

- It shows that we have been cleansed by Jesus death
- It shows that we now have a new bike/guinea pig/life that Jesus gives

You can get baptised in any soup/water/custard. The water is not special. It is like a live picture to help us show to everyone what has happened to us when we trusted/believe/have faith in Jesus.

Check out these verses from the Bible: Acts 2:38,
Romans 6:3,4, Colossians 2:12

You can get baptised when you are ready to show no-one/everyone/someone that you are a follower of Jesus. Why not talk to mum and dad or a caring adult about it today?

The Baptism of Jesus

As Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased." Mark 1:10-11
